

MORNING APPEAL.

Friday, August 13 1886

A QUESTION OF ETIQUETTE.

Everybody is asking why the Chief executive officer of the State was not on hand last evening to extend the usual gubernatorial courtesies to the Logan party. His reception by the people of this city was not a question of politics but purely a question of etiquette. Gen. Logan was a distinguished Union soldier of the war and ran as the Vice-Presidential nominee on the Republican ticket. Wherever he has been, he has been treated with public honors by the citizens irrespective of party.

In this city leading Democrats were asked to take part in the reception but they declined, having taken the cue from Adams.

Where was Adams when the hat went round to provide for Logan's entertainment? Up in Virginia City where he had gone to personally manipulate his primaries. Tomorrow Logan will be in Virginia City and Adams will then make it convenient to be here. The people of Nevada contemplate this spectacle with shame and humiliation.

THE VIRGINIA PRIMARIES.

As the APPEAL predicted weeks ago Adams has captured Storey county at the Democratic primaries. He won by means of the almost consolidated vote of the labor organizations of the Comstock. He made himself solid with the Unions when he vetoed the Military Bill, and the stand of the Unions is as little as they could be expected to do under the circumstances. The Unions needed assistance in the fight in the Military Bill, and they got it from Adams. What his motives were in standing by the Unions cuts no figure in the case. He stood in and they reciprocated the favor. It is the most natural thing in the world for them to do, and no one can blame them for it.

WILL RUN AGAIN.

Washoe county presented the name of Charles S. Preble four years ago to be nominated and elected State Surveyor General. His administration has drawn more attention to Nevada land and brought more money to the State Treasury than all previous ones. If the Republican voters of Washoe will give him their endorsement he will again go before the Convention and seek a re-nomination and a re-election.—Gazette.

—How will the Fair-Adams wing of the Democracy survive if Mr. Fair with his customary bluntness should inform them that he has at last made up his mind to wait a short time longer before deciding whether he will be a factor in the Nevada election this year? Greed and anxiety are bad nurses and the infant boom of the great statesmen, who promise all things to their henchmen. It is a critical state of health. The loaves and fishes must be provided or the love feast can't go on.—Hawthorne Bulletin.

—W. J. Sheridan, a warm supporter of Winters, put his hand in his pocket to give a voter a ballot, and was astonished to discover shortly thereafter that some Adams worker had changed tickets with him and that he had actually given his friend an Adams ballot.—Virginia Chronicle.

The above is a fair sample of the methods by which Adams has always conducted his political campaigns.

—People in search of retractions will hereafter avoid the Rev. Milton McWorther of the Marysville Democrat. He evidently shoots to kill. His swift and sure use of the pistol is, however, the greatest surprise he could have given his friends and acquaintances. He is a small and very slight man, with retiring manners and a thoughtful expression. His release is, of course, only a mere question of time.

—The Nevada Union is bitterly opposed to Hon. Wm. M. Stewart for United States Senator, and otherwise shows a tendency to be Democratic, although it claims to be non-partisan. The Times was informed six or eight months ago that Jim Fair was to have a paper in Carson. Wonder if the Union is that paper?—Dayton Times.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, adulterated or phos-phate powders. Sold only in cans. Royal Baking Powder Co., 109 Wall St., N. Y.
